

Master in Branch Agricultural Sciences
Speciality Animal Production

Brief

The Animal Production, with all these sectors, namely, bovine, ovine, caprine, beekeeping, poultry and rabbit farming remains neuralgic considering its quality of provider of food products of animal origin. Therefore, the Animal Production can know a real development, which would pass by the training of high level executives able to develop a scientific reflection in order to build a basis of sustainable development.
